

Dress code and behaviour in the Paddock and the Winners' Enclosure

Owners, trainers and their guests

Ladies: skirt or trousers, shirt or blouse, elegant dress, elegant shoes or sandals.

Gentlemen: trousers, jacket, shirt (or collared T-shirt or T-shirt with jacket)

Not allowed: shorts, ripped or torn trousers, T-shirt uncovering the abdomen, tank top, slippers, sports sandals.

On featured days elegant clothing: cocktail dress, hat, suit and tie is recommended.

Grooms: trousers, collared T-shirt, silks, blouse, shirt, closed shoes, top with sponsor logo.

Not allowed: ripped or torn jeans, shorts, T-shirt uncovering the abdomen, spaghetti strap top, tank top, slippers, sports sandals.

On featured days elegant clothing is recommended.

Dear Trainers,

The Paddock and the Winners' Enclosure are highlighted areas of the racecourse. Please follow all written and unwritten rules at all times. Should an owner, an employee or your guest not follow the traditional standards of the sport, please do not invite them in the Paddock or the Winners' Circle.

These two places could be unsafe for minors. Children under 12 may only enter under parental supervision and solely on their parents' responsibility.

Visitors are kindly requested to leave their canine friends outside the Paddock and the Winners' Circle and keep them away from racehorses.

Kincsem Nemzeti Ltd. and the Stewards may penalise visitors who do not follow regulations.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Kincsem Park